

IN LOVING MEMORY

Lynn was born on November 8, 1943 in Snyder, Texas to Morris Kenneth Hardee and Ruby Ray Roberson Hardee. She attended school in Ira, Snyder, and Tulia, where she graduated in 1962. While in Tulia, she was an all-state basketball player, playing with Tulia's varsity team in the 8th grade before reaching high school. Later, as a member of the Seminole Junior Study Club, she helped organize a baseball program for girls as well as started the girls Little Dribblers basketball program. She attended Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

She had worked for Swisher County ASCS, as a dental assistant in Lawton, Oklahoma, as a secretary for Fisher Ford in Hale Center, as a secretary for Jones Drilling in Seminole. She married Marcus Crow on January 27, 1977 in Odessa. They lived in Seminole and moved to Andrews in 1978. Her career with Andrews County and PBRPC started with the CETA Job Training Program, where she helped underprivileged kids find jobs for 9 years. She continued work for Andrews County as the Secretary for the County Judge, serving under three different judges (Judge Brown, Judge Gaston, and Judge Dolgener) from 1982 – 2003. She was a supporter and leader of the 4-H. Her family will remember her as a great homemaker, wife, and mother, where she loved canning, gardening, cooking, baking, and often shared jars of canned goods with family and friends.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Andrews, where she was a member of the Gleaners Sunday School Class and participant in their activities.

Lynn is survived by her husband, Marcus Crow of Andrews; 6 children, Blaine Kruizenga and husband, John, of Houston, Colby Lemmons and wife, Joanne, of Houston, Marcus Crow, Jr. and wife, Beverly, of Loop, Shelby Concotelli of Seminole, Becky McCann and husband, Fred, of Midland, and Brentz Mason and husband, Tim, of Andrews, and 15 grandchildren; and 11 great grandchildren, all of whom she loved dearly. Her grandsons will serve as pallbearers at her service. She was preceded in death by her father in 2000, her mother in 2003, her brother, Dennis Hardee in 2011, and her grandson, Brice Emmerson in 1989.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Burkhart Center for Autism Education and Research found online at <http://ldonate.give2tech.com/?fid=T24A105>. They can also be reached via phone at (806) 742-4561 or email at Burkhart.edu@ttu.edu.

Lynn Hardee Crow

1943 - 2017

IN LOVING MEMORY

Lynn was born on November 8, 1943 in Snyder, Texas to Morris Kenneth Hardee and Ruby Ray Roberson Hardee. She attended school in Ira, Snyder, and Tulia, where she graduated in 1962. While in Tulia, she was an all-state basketball player, playing with Tulia's varsity team in the 8th grade before reaching high school. Later, as a member of the Seminole Junior Study Club, she helped organize a baseball program for girls as well as started the girls Little Dribblers basketball program. She attended Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

She had worked for Swisher County ASCS, as a dental assistant in Lawton, Oklahoma, as a secretary for Fisher Ford in Hale Center, as a secretary for Jones Drilling in Seminole. She married Marcus Crow on January 27, 1977 in Odessa. They lived in Seminole and moved to Andrews in 1978. Her career with Andrews County and PBRPC started with the CETA Job Training Program, where she helped underprivileged kids find jobs for 9 years. She continued work for Andrews County as the Secretary for the County Judge, serving under three different judges (Judge Brown, Judge Gaston, and Judge Dolgener) from 1982 – 2003. She was a supporter and leader of the 4-H. Her family will remember her as a great homemaker, wife, and mother, where she loved canning, gardening, cooking, baking, and often shared jars of canned goods with family and friends.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Andrews, where she was a member of the Gleaners Sunday School Class and participant in their activities.

Lynn is survived by her husband, Marcus Crow of Andrews; 6 children, Blaine Kruizenga and husband, John, of Houston, Colby Lemmons and wife, Joanne, of Houston, Marcus Crow, Jr. and wife, Beverly, of Loop, Shelby Concotelli of Seminole, Becky McCann and husband, Fred, of Midland, and Brentz Mason and husband, Tim, of Andrews, and 15 grandchildren; and 11 great grandchildren, all of whom she loved dearly. Her grandsons will serve as pallbearers at her service. She was preceded in death by her father in 2000, her mother in 2003, her brother, Dennis Hardee in 2011, and her grandson, Brice Emmerson in 1989.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Burkhart Center for Autism Education and Research found online at <http://ldonate.give2tech.com/?fid=T24A105>. They can also be reached via phone at (806) 742-4561 or email at Burkhart.edu@ttu.edu.

Lynn Hardee Crow

1943 - 2017

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard His call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things too will be missed.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee -
God wanted me now; He has set me free.*

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard His call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things too will be missed.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee -
God wanted me now; He has set me free.*

Lynn Hardee Crow

DATE AND PLACE OF BIRTH

Monday, November 8, 1943

Snyder, Texas

Age: 73 Years

DATE AND PLACE OF DEATH

Saturday, July 8, 2017

Andrews, Texas

SERVICE TIME AND LOCATION

10:00AM, Wednesday, July 12, 2017

First Baptist Church, Andrews, Texas

OFFICIATING

Pastor Brant O'Connor

Ronnie Stephens

INTERMENT LOCATION

Andrews Old Cemetery

1401 West Broadway, Andrews, Texas

Philippians 4:8-9

Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things. 9 The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in Me, these do, and the God of peace will be with you.

Lynn Hardee Crow

DATE AND PLACE OF BIRTH

Monday, November 8, 1943

Snyder, Texas

Age: 73 Years

DATE AND PLACE OF DEATH

Saturday, July 8, 2017

Andrews, Texas

SERVICE TIME AND LOCATION

10:00AM, Wednesday, July 12, 2017

First Baptist Church, Andrews, Texas

OFFICIATING

Pastor Brant O'Connor

Ronnie Stephens

INTERMENT LOCATION

Andrews Old Cemetery

1401 West Broadway, Andrews, Texas

Philippians 4:8-9

Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things. 9 The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in Me, these do, and the God of peace will be with you.